CONSTITUTION

of the

Junior League of Winston-Salem, N. C.

Article I—Name

The name of the organization shall be the Junior League of Winston-Salem, affiliated with the Association of Junior Leagues of America, Inc.

Article II—Object

"To foster interest among its members in the social, economic, educational, civic and cultural conditions of the community, and to make efficient its volunteer service."

Article III—Membership

Section 1. The membership of this League shall consist of young women.

Section 2. The classes of membership are as follows:

1. Provisional Members—those not eligible to active membership until they have complied with the requirements of the League's Provisional training course and its voluntary system of service. At the end of this period, if found by the Board of Directors satisfactorily to have met the above requirements, they are declared active members. Provisional members shall have no voting power. The maximum period of provisional membership shall be two years. If at the end of this time a Provisional member is not eligible and is not elected to active membership, her name shall be eliminated from this list.

2. Active Members—those who, having finished their provisional course, are required to attend all monthly meetings, except when excused, and to take part in the regular activities of the League.

3. Professional Members—those who are not able to attend monthly meetings regularly, or to take part in the full activities of the League because of a profession. They may vote, and are required to pay the same dues as active members, and serve when possible in any capacity.

4. Professional Provisional Members—those provisional members who, not being able to take part in all the activities of the League, are required only part-time work. They must, however, comply with all the rules of the provisional training course.

5. Non-Resident Members—those members who leave Winston-Salem for an indefinite length of time. They may be granted non-resident membership, provided they are in good standing at the time of their written application to the Board of Directors. Non-resident members shall have no voting power.

6. Sustaining Members—those active members who, having reached the age of forty, automatically become sustaining members. Sustaining members may attend meetings, but do not have voting power. They may serve on committees and may propose candidates for provisional membership. Sustaining members are required to pay regular dues, and contribute the regular Thrift Shop quota.

7. Guest Members—transfers shall be accepted by the Winston-Salem League as Guest Members for one year. During this year the Guest Members may pay dues to the Winston-Salem League or to the League from which she has transferred. During this year she shall have no vote, but she shall be required to attend regular meetings and contribute the required Thrift Shop quota of rummage. She shall be expected to attend the next series of provisional lectures. At the end of a year the Guest Member shall be passed upon by the Board of the Winston-Salem League. This does not apply to former members of the Winston-Salem League.

Section 3. Admission to membership shall be in accordance with the existing by-laws of this organization.

Article IV—Officers, Board of Directors, and Executive Committee

Section 1. The government and management of this League shall be vested in its Board of Directors. The Board shall consist of the seven elected officers and the chairmen of the following committees: The Children's Theatre, Placement, Education, Arts, Beauty Parlor, Thrift Shop, Gift Shop, Magazine, Editor of the "News-sheet," and other committee chairmen at the discretion of the Board.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the seven elected officers, and shall have all the powers of the Board of Directors between meetings. The decisions of the Executive Committee shall be presented to the Board for ratification at its next meeting.

Section 3. The officers of the League shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer.

Article V

The transfer of members to or from this League shall be governed by the A. J. L. A. standing rules in effect at the time of the transfer.

Article VI—Amendments

This constitution may be amended, added to, or repealed at any regular or annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of those present, provided the proposed plan shall have been presented in writing and signed by five active members at least one meeting before it is acted upon.

BY-LAWS

Article I—Meetings

Section 1. Junior League Meetings.

A. A meeting of the Junior League shall be held on the first Tuesday of the following months: April, November, December, January, February, and March. The Annual meeting shall be held in May, the date to be determined each year by the Board of Directors. The October meeting shall be held on the second Tuesday of that month. No notice shall be given except through the newspaper.

1. Changes of meeting.

The date, hour or place of the regular monthly meeting shall not be changed without forty-eight hours' notice in the newspaper, or a personal telephone call to every member.

B. Call Meetings.

Special meetings may be called by the President and the Board of Directors or upon written request of twenty-five active members. The call for the special meeting must state the business to be transacted.

Section II. Meetings of Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall meet prior to the regular business meetings of the League. There shall be as many other meetings of the Board as deemed necessary by the President.

Article II—Elections

Section I. Election of the Nominating Committee.

A. There shall be a Nominating Committee composed of five members—two appointed by the President from the Board of Directors and three elected by the League at large, this committee to be elected at the April meeting. The nominating committee shall serve for one year.

Section II. Election of Officers.

A. The nominating committee shall present one candidate for each office. Additional nominations may be sent in writing to the Nominating Committee at any time before the March meeting of the League, if signed by five members of the League. These shall be presented by the Nominating Committee with the others. A duplicate copy of the letter sent the Nominating Committee must be sent the person nominated by the five signers. The Nominating Committee shall not have the power to accept any withdrawals. At the March meeting the League shall vote on each name separately by secret ballot and the majority of votes cast elects an officer. If there are no nominations from League members, the League shall vote on the ticket as a whole. These officers shall assume office at the April meeting.

Section III. Election of Admissions Committee.

A. At the April meeting the Nominating Committee shall submit a list of twenty representative names, active and sustaining Junior League members, who have lived in Winston-Salem five years. Voting members present may vote for seven names on the list. The seven names receiving the highest number of votes will form the Admissions Committee. The personnel of this Committee and its meeting shall be secret.

B. The second Vice-President shall serve as Chairman of the Committee and shall be responsible for counting the ballots. She shall notify those elected, and call the first meeting as soon thereafter as possible, at which time the entire committee shall recount the ballots.

C. No member may serve on the Admission Committee for more than two years in succession. In case a member has served for two successive years and is again elected, the Second Vice-President shall call upon the person receiving the next highest vote to serve instead. In case of a tie, the six members and Second Vice-President shall have the power to determine by a majority vote the seventh member of the Committee.

D. Relatives (mothers, sisters, sisters-in-law, first cousins) of candidates for membership may not serve on the Admissions Committee. In the event of the election of such a person to the Admissions Committee she shall be automatically replaced by the person receiving the next highest number of votes.

Section IV. Election of Provisional Members.

A. Nominations for Provisional Membership.

1. A candidate for Provisional Membership may be proposed by any member of the League except provisionals and guest members, and must be endorsed by two other members (not provisionals), on an application blank provided for that purpose. The blank must be returned to the Second Vice-President by September 15. A candidate failing of election for three years shall not be eligible again for proposal. (The records of as many consecutive years as are available shall be used as the basis for determining the eligibility of all persons considered for provisional membership.) A member may propose but one candidate and second one.

B. Qualifications For Provisional Membership.

1. A candidate for provisional membership must have completed her schooling and shall be between the ages of nineteen and thirty-three, inclusive. She shall have been a resident of Winston-Salem or its vicinity at least one year before she is proposed.

2. All candidates shall be in a position to fulfill their obligations to the League in attending the Provisional Course and in complying with the provisional requirements.

C. Duties of Admissions Committee.

1. It shall be the duty of the Admissions Committee to receive all nominations for members in accordance with the provisions of Article II, Section IV A. It shall also be the duty of this Committee to consider the names of other candidates. They shall acquaint themselves concerning the individual candidates and shall be responsible for finding out their qualifications. The Admissions Committee shall meet as many times as necessary. After thorough discussion, a vote by secret ballot shall be taken. Five affirmative votes of the Admissions Committee are necessary for election by this Committee. At the October meeting of the Board of Directors, held one week before the regular League meeting, the Second Vice-President shall submit the list of candidates approved by the Admissions Committee. The entire Board shall vote by secret ballot, and a three-fourths majority shall be necessary for election. Invitations shall be mailed immediately to those elected, and the names of those who accept shall be announced by the Second Vice-President at the next meeting of the League.

2. The number of professional provisional members taken in the League in any one year shall be limited to two. The total number of provisionals admitted in any one year shall not exceed twelve.

Section IV. Election of Conference Delegates.

The Nominating Committee shall nominate delegates to all conferences. Additional nominations may be made from the floor. The full expense of delegates to Conferences shall be paid by the League.

Article III—Duties of Officers and Chairmen of Standing Committees

Section I. Duties of Officers.

A. The President.

1. The President shall preside at all regular meetings of the League and the Board of Directors.

2. She shall be ex-officio member of all committees.

3. At her discretion she may call special meetings of the Board and of the League.

4. The President shall read the chairmen and personnel of all standing committees to the League at the April meeting.

5. She shall, with the Treasurer, sign all leases, contracts and other obligations authorized by the Board of Directors.

B. The First Vice-President.

The First Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President in her absence or resignation, and assist her when necessary.

C. The Second Vice-President.

1. The retiring President shall become Second Vice-President at the election of officers.

2. The Second Vice-President shall serve as Chairman of the Admissions Committee.

D. Recording Secretary.

1. The Recording Secretary shall keep minutes of all meetings of the Junior League and the Executive Board.

2. She shall keep an accurate and classified list of all members of the League.

E. Corresponding Secretary.

1. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the League.

2. She shall preserve all important papers and documents.

3. She shall give notice of all call meetings of the League to members.

4. She shall compile the annual reports and edit the year book.

F. Treasurer.

1. The Treasurer shall collect and disburse all funds of the League as directed by the Executive Board and the League, except those funds handled by specific committees (i. e., Beauty Parlor, Gift Shop, Children's Theatre, etc.)

2. She shall send annual notices of dues to all members on April 1. To those members who have not paid in full by the following May 31, she shall send a final notice, a registered letter, on June 1. The cost of the registered letter will be added to the delinquent dues.

3. She shall send a notice of the Initiation Fee to Provisional members when they accept membership in the League and notice of their annual dues in April.

4. She shall sign with the President all contracts, leases, and other obligations authorized by the League or Board of Directors.

5. She shall submit annual and monthly reports.

6. She shall be bonded.

7. There shall be an annual audit of the books by an auditor not connected with the League.

G. Assistant Treasurer.

1. The Assistant Treasurer shall perform the duties of the treasurer in her absence and assist her when necessary.

2. She shall keep a record of attendance at League meetings.

Section II. Duties of Standing Committees.

A. Duties of Chairmen.

1. The Chairmen of all Standing Committees shall make monthly and annual reports of their work.

2. They each shall assist the Executive Committee in the appointment of other members of their respective committees.

3. A Committee Chairman shall appoint a sub-chairman to assist her and serve in her absence.

B. Duties of Standing Committees: All standing committees (except the following: Nomination, Education, Finance, Children's Theatre) shall have regular monthly meetings.

1. Executive Committee.

(a) The Executive Committee shall appoint the chairmen and personnel of all standing committees after the March meeting and before the April meeting each year.

2. Nominating Committee.

(a) The Nominating Committee shall nominate candidates for Junior League offices, for members of the Admissions Committee, and delegates to conferences.

(b) The Nominating Committee shall be given the power subject to the approval of the Board, to fill any vacancies which might occur.

(c) The Nominating Committee shall consult all candidates proposed by the Committee and ascertain their willingness to serve before presenting their names to the League.

3. Arts Committee.

The Arts Committee shall bring to the attention of the League members noteworthy civic, educational, and artistic activities and shall initiate and stimulate such activities within the League.

4. Beauty Parlor Committee.

This committee shall be responsible for the proper functioning and the accounts of the Junior League Beauty Parlor.

5. Child Guidance Clinic Committee.

This Committee shall interpret and stimulate interest in the work of the Clinic among Junior League members and in the community.

6. Magazine Committee.

The Magazine Committee shall collect and edit material for the Junior League Magazine and interest members in the magazine.

7. Placement Committee.

The Placement Committee is the co-ordinating department of the League. It shall plan and supervise the League's volunteer service program so that it may utilize the capacities and abilities of the League membership in ways most valuable to the community and satisfactory to the membership. Card records of the work of the members shall be kept, and it shall be the duty of the Committee to keep the members informed throughout the year of the amount of work they have accomplished.

8. Education Committee.

The Education Committee shall be responsible for the Provisional Training Course, special training courses for specialized types of volunteer service, and lectures and courses of general nature which the membership desires. The purpose of this committee is the continued education of the membership.

9. Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee shall have charge of the financial policies of the Junior League. They shall make out the budget of expenditures anticipated by the League. The Treasurer shall be a member of this committee.

10. Gift Shop.

The Gift Shop Committee shall be responsible for the proper functioning and the accounts of the Junior League Gift Shop.

11. Publicity.

The Publicity Committee shall supervise all the League's publicity: the Board of Directors shall determine the policies of the League with regard to the publicity to be given its activities. No member of the League shall give out for the press any news item or information concerning the League and its activities except through and with the approval of the Publicity Committee.

12. Newssheet Committee.

This Committee shall edit and publish the Newssheet.

13. Children's Theatre Committee.

This Committee shall plan, present or sponsor Children's Theatre programs and shall interpret the League's Theatre Program. It shall be the duty of this Committee to supervise the co-operation of the League with outside organizations in Children's plays.

14. Thrift Shop.

The Thrift Shop Committee shall have charge of the Thrift Shop. It shall be the duty of this Committee to keep the Shop supplied with rummage and arrange for volunteer workers.

Article IV.—Term of Office

No officer or chairman shall hold the same office more than two years in succession, with the exception of the treasurer, and chairman of the Finance Committee.

Article V—Dues

Section 1. Dues for Provisional, Active, Professional, Non-Resident, and Sustaining members shall be $8.00 a year payable semi-annually.

Section II. Provisional Members shall pay an initiation fee of $10.00 when they accept the invitation of the League. No provisional member shall be taken into active membership until the initiation fee is paid.

Section III. Fines.

A. Any member who at the end of the fiscal year, running from April 1 to March 31, who has not paid her dues is given three months in which to pay them. If not paid by then, the dues are automatically doubled. If not paid by the end of six months, the delinquent member shall be automatically dropped from the roll. The only acceptable excuse is financial disability, made to the Treasurer on or before the expiration of the three months' period of grace, July 1.

B. Any Junior League member, other than non-resident members, shall be required to pay annually on April 1 in cash to the Thrift Shop any amount not otherwise contributed in rummage to complete her Thrift Shop quota.

Article VI—Provisional Training Course

Section I. Attendance

A. Each candidate who has become eligible for provisional membership shall be required to take a training course. This course shall include information upon (1) the organization and activities of the A. J. L. A. (2) the organization and activities of the Winston-Salem League, and (3) the social, economic, educational, cultural, and civic conditions of the community.

B. Punctual attendance upon all lectures planned for provisional members is compulsory.

C. A written notice of the dates and hour for all lectures must accompany each letter of invitation to provisional members. No further notice need be given unless there be a change of date or hour for any lecture.

D. All explanations for absence from any lecture must be sent in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board shall at all times have the authority to decide upon each case, based upon its individual merits. Excused absence from lectures. (a) The actual time of the lecture not attended must be made up. (b) Notes of lectures not attended must be secured for study. Unexcused absence. (a) The entire lecture course and examination must be taken over the following year.

Section II. Examinations.

A. At the completion of this training course, an examination shall be given to each candidate. The Education Committee shall review the papers and pass on the merit of each paper. Any candidate who fails to present a satisfactory paper shall be required to repeat the course and examination the next year.

B. The Board of Directors shall pass upon the record of each Provisional member and shall determine whether or not said Provisional member has satisfactorily performed the requirements laid down by it.

Article VII

The first time a member fails to report to her assigned task without securing a substitute, she shall be warned by her chairman. At the second offense there shall be a conference with the chairman and the Placement Chairman. On the third offense she appears before the Board; and, if the offenses are not excusable she is dropped from the League.

Article VIII—Rules of Order

Roberts Rules of Order, revised, shall be the authority followed in all parliamentary proceedings of the League.

Article IX—Amendments

These by-laws may be amended, added to, or repealed at any regular meeting by a majority vote of the members present.
